Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we go through the day each of us has a gift to share with others. This may come in the form of an encouraging word, a smile. It may come in the form of something we are tempted to say that would not be good, and we resist that temptation and this is an unknown blessing to someone. Maybe even in the midst of the day we offer up something we are doing for someone else. It is possible even to offer the day or a particular task or a prayer for the souls in purgatory, people dealing with certain things or even someone we know. These simple and practical ways we can love our neighbor are often hidden, but available to help us all grow in love of God and neighbor.

~ Fr. Jon
