Saint Justin Martyr

St. Justin was a philosopher who became a Christian. He wrote the apology which is an explanation of the faith. In it he shares about the celebration of the Eucharist in great detail. This is a very early account of the mass. He died in the year 165. St. Justin said that “we pray for our enemies.” He was beheaded by the Roman prefect when he refused to deny the faith. “Do you think,” the prefect said to Justin, “that by dying you will enter heaven, and be rewarded by God?” “I do not think,” was the saint’s answer; “I know.” Let us pray that we can use our gifts to seek the Lord and share His truth and love.

St. Justin Martyr’s feast day is June 1st.

Are you a student at De La Salle High School? If so, consider applying for a $1000 award from the James MacMaster Scholarship Fund. To be considered for the award, you must be a member of St. Lawrence-Newman, enrolled for the 2015-2016 school year, and submit an essay of about 500 words explaining why you value your Catholic education, or how your Catholic education has made a difference in your life. Special collections for the Pope and the archdiocese will be announced a week before the collections are taken.

Housing Needed

A young married couple from Colombia is spending the summer on a graduate fellowship at the university, and they are worshipping at St. Lawrence. They are in need of a room they might rent from a parishioner or a Catholic family. If you can help, please let us know in the parish office.

Summer Gopher Catholic Night Tuesdays at 7 pm in the Gathering Space

Learn how to share your faith with your friends. The group will be reading and discussing Forming Intentional Disciples: The Path to Knowing and Following Jesus, by Sherry A. Weddell. Both undergraduate and graduate students are urged to join the group.
