Saint Ignatius of Constantinople

(c. 798-877)

St. Ignatius was a bishop who suffered at the hands of his uncle. He was put in a monastery, and grew in great holiness. He is an example of how we can bring our pain to the Lord to be transformed in Him. St. Ignatius said, “My body has already been marred — I have died to myself and I spend each day learning to die more perfectly.” He also said “As I curb my sensual desires and regulate those passions, I enjoy an inner peace that the entire world cannot take away from me.”

Let us ask the Lord to help us have our peace in Him alone.

St. Ignatius' Feast Day is
October 23 (this Friday).
