Holy Week

Holy Week is approaching, and this is a beautiful time to encounter the Lord. During these days we celebrate the institution of the Eucharist and Jesus suffering death and resurrection in defeating sin and the evil one. We will have Bishop Cozzens with us on Holy Thursday and the Easter Vigil. We also will have nine people receiving sacraments at the Easter Vigil this year. I want to thank Jane Rea for all she has done to walk with them and prepare them in coordinating RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). As we enter this sacred time let us ask the Lord to help us receive Him and respond to His invitation to walk with Him more deeply in our daily lives.
