Fifth Sunday of Lent

Blessed Marcel Callo

Born in France in 1921, Blessed Marcel Callo fell in love at the age of 20. He waited a year before telling her, as he wanted his heart to be pure, and one had to master his heart before he giving it to the one chosen for him by Christ. He prayed with and went to Mass with his future wife regularly.

During World War II in France he helped and served refugees who were fleeing to France from the Nazis. He was eventually deported to Germany and forced to make bombs in a factory; he was told that if he resisted his family would be harmed. Marcel was arrested because of his Catholic faith while working in Germany. In the midst of many sufferings, he never complained and said, "It is in prayer that one finds strength." He died in 1945.

Let us ask the Lord to love Him and our Neighbor with the love of Jesus that Marcel so powerfully lived in his life.
