Saint John Vianney
(c. 1786-1859)

St. John Vianney was a parish priest in France in the 1800s. The Lord worked through him so powerfully that he would hear confessions 16 hours a day, and the line for confessions was between two and three days long. The Lord works through humble vessels, though, because St. John Vianney struggled with academics. He needed notes to give homilies and would sometimes get so confused that he had to just end without it being coherent. But in the midst of this reality, the Lord worked. This is a reminder to us that holiness is not found simply in one's own giftedness, but in surrendering to God fully.

Let us ask St. John Vianney to be humble in the midst of our limitations and allow the Lord to do all that He wants in us and through us.

St. John Vianney is the patron saint of parish priests.
His Feast Day is August 4th.
