Happy Easter!

During the Easter Season we celebrate the tremendous gift that Jesus gives us. He pursued us while we were sinners in order to reunite us with His Father. He revealed the Father's love to us, and then showed us that love by his suffering and death. The Father raised him from the dead in order to show His victory over sin and death. The Easter season lasts for eight weeks and culminates with the feasts of Ascension (where Jesus ascends into heaven) and Pentecost (where the Holy Spirit is sent upon us to empower us to respond to the saving truth Jesus gives). Let us ask the Lord to help us during this Easter season to live in the Jesus victory, and to receive the Love that He reveals and demonstrates.

Dear St. Lawrence Newman Community,

I want to inform you that I have been reassigned to serve at the St. Paul Seminary in the area of Spiritual Formation and Spiritual Direction. The change will take place late in June. I have loved my time here walking with all of you, and will miss this vibrant community. I have given my recommendation to the bishops for a priest who will be a great fit for the fruitful life that is here at St. Lawrence Catholic Church and Newman Center. We should find out, within a few weeks, who will be coming here. I am peaceful with this change that has been requested of me because I know the community will continue to thrive with the new priest who will be assigned here, and with the ongoing support and presence of the Brotherhood of Hope at St. Lawrence. Know that it has been a great joy to walk with you here these past six years.

In Christ, Fr. Jon Vander Ploeg
