Divine Mercy Sunday

April 28, 2019

Graduation 2019

As students go forward into the midst of the world for new adventures, and some stay with us here at St. Lawrence, let us all pray for one another. There is a great gift you can bring to the Church and the world. As you go forward you bring all that you have learned and experienced. You also bring the Lord with you, and this gift can transform the world. I would encourage you to share what you have received, and don't underestimate that you have something to share. St. Julian of Norwich said, "Our soul can never have rest in things that are beneath itself." She also said that "the greatest honor you can give Almighty God is to live gladly, joyfully because of the knowledge of His love." Let us receive the gift of God's love and invite Him into every situation in our lives, as well as every encounter with others so that we may share the truth of His love.
